

Women in Business: Are You 'Leaning In'?

Wednesday 17 July
from 5.30pm until 8pm

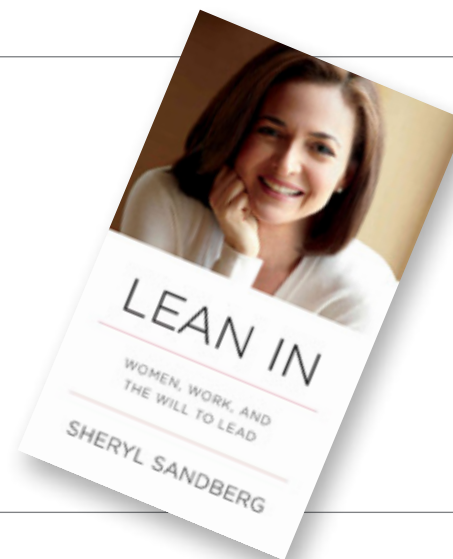

NAB – Auditorium
800 Bourke Street, Docklands

Look inside
for our special
Early bird offers!

It is time to 'lean in'! Gender diversity in the workplace has more senior business leaders such as John Chambers (CEO, CISCO) and Warren Buffett (CEO, Berkshire Hathaway) leaning into the debate.

After reading Sheryl Sandberg's (COO, Facebook) book – 'Lean In', Chambers has taken the unprecedented step by ordering each of his top managers to come up with new women-focused initiatives and include them in their development plans. The evidence is overwhelmingly in favour of gender diversity in the workplace because the varied experiences of employees can lead to creative problem solving and increase productivity, resulting in a more successful business.

Book before Thursday 4th July and benefit from the Early Bird fees

Early bird (NCCA member): $55

Early bird (non-member): $65

Normal fee (NCCA member): $70

Normal fee (non-member): $85

To book, go to

www.trybooking.com/DAIZ

For further enquiries:

Netherlands Chamber of Commerce Australia (Inc.)

Mobile: 0434 183 508; email: info@ncca.com.au

The NCCA proudly presents “Women in business: are you 'leaning in'?”

The event will include a high profile panel, including:

Amanda Hagan :: Chief Executive Officer, Healthcare and Director of Australian Unity Health Limited and Grand United Corporate Health Limited.

Ms Hagan has more than 15 years' experience in senior roles consulting on strategic projects for a range of companies including AGL, American Express and Energy Australia. Before joining Australian Unity, Ms Hagan held various executive roles with Perpetual Limited.

Jackie Korhonen :: Senior Vice President, Infosys and Senior Vice President Geo Head Infosys Australia and New Zealand; Financial Services Head – Asia, Middle East & Africa.

Jackie brings over 25 years of experience in leadership positions in Australia and Asia. After graduating with dual degrees in Science and Chemical Engineering, Jackie started her career as an engineer working her way up from a technical customer service role to executive roles in some of the IT and BPO industry's largest companies.

Cindy Vandecasteele :: General Manager, Business Management, Enterprise Services and Transformation with NAB.

Cindy joined NAB in 2006 as Head Of Process and Efficiency in Consumer Product Solutions. She has since held senior roles focussed on operational leadership and significant change implementation to improve compliance and the customer experience. Since 2010, Cindy held the position of Head of Strategic Segments, Customer Contact Centre in Direct Banking.

Karen Morley PhD :: Principal of Karen Morley & Associates; co-founder of Gender Worx.

Karen will preside as moderator for our panel discussion. She brings an impressive track record of over 20 years experience to leadership consulting and has worked with a range of business, government and not for profit organisations.

Netherlands Chamber of Commerce Australia (Inc.)

PO Box: 6232 St Kilda Road Central
Melbourne VIC 8008

Email: info@ncca.com.au
Website: www.ncca.com.au

Association number: A0019693Z
ABN: 22 399 727 369

The Netherlands Chamber of Commerce Australia promotes trade and investment relations between Australian and Dutch organisations and individuals and provides a business networking forum for its members in a professional and social atmosphere, through meetings, functions, trade delegations, promotions and provision of trade assistance.

NCCA is a not-for-profit organisation working closely with Australian business and government organisations, international Chambers of Commerce, the Royal Netherlands Embassy in Canberra, the Australian Embassy in the Netherlands and Dutch Chambers of Commerce.

Our membership includes both Dutch and Australian companies and individuals, representing a variety of industry sectors.

For further information on the NCCA including our event calendar please refer to our website www.ncca.com.au. The website is updated regularly with news of our activities and other opportunities.

The NCCA relies on membership and corporate partnerships to undertake its business activities. We invite you to join our association by becoming a member. Please download the membership information brochure from the website.

Our Principal Partners

Supporting Partners

